Instructions for the Faculty Sponsor:

- You are required to ask questions one to three below*. Please summarize the EV's answers in the space provided.
- As this is your summary of the EV's responses, it is expected that all answers will be in the third person.
- Please make sure the answer to the question regarding U.S. culture references activities the EV would like to do outside their lab, research, or academia. If the answer does not reflect interests outside the the lab, research, or academia, we will send the form back for additional information.
- Documentation of English Proficiency is required by the U.S. Department of State for all J-1 exchange visitors. The interview is one of three available options.

1. How have you prepared yourself to live and work/study in an English-speaking environment?2. Tell me about your current work/research. What skills and knowledge do you expect to gain while at the Johns Hopkins University?

3. Outside of your activities at JHU, what do you hope to learn about U.S. culture and customs?*

4. Additional Questions (Optional)

Based on this interview:

Is the EV's English sufficient for the proposed activities? Yes No

Is the EV's English sufficient to function in the U.S. on day-to-day basis? Yes No

I hereby confirm, that I, the faculty sponsor, documented the above answers and conducted the English proficiency interview entirely in English in accordance with the instructions on the previous page.

I understand that the misrepresentation of any information to the OIS may negatively affect the University's J-1 exchange visitor program, and could subject the University to criminal or civil penalties including suspension, revocation, termination, or denial of J-1 program designation in the event of an audit by the U.S. Department of State.
