

Am I subject to 212(e)?

A worksheet to be used in conjunction with the 212(e) slideshow

		YES	NO	UNCLEAR
slide 6	Does the annotation on my current or any previous J-1 visa imply that I am subject?
slide 8	Does the consular endorsement on my current or any previous DS-2019 imply that I am subject?
slide 10	Did you ever receive any direct funding from a government or international organization while in J-1 status?
slide 13	Is my home country, program code, or any keywords listed in subject /field code remarks on the Skills List?

Actions

Advisory Opinion	Waiver*	None
If you selected “yes” or “unclear” to any of the above questions.	If you selected “yes” to any or all of the above questions	If you selected “No” to all of the above questions
Used when there is any doubt that you may be subject to 212(e).	Used when you are certain you are subject to 212(e) or after receiving an advisory opinion of “subject”	No action is required when you can determine with complete certainty that you are not subject.

* Prior to applying for a 212\(e\) waiver J-1 Exchange Visitors should contact an OIS advisor.

Please email J1-Advising@jhu.edu for further questions.